

INDEX

---

Bard College is not used as subject unless no other reference is applicable

AAUP, negotiations with President Case 147-148
Albee Dormitory, completed 1925, 66
Albee, Edward E. F., donations to St. Stephen's, 66
Aldrich, Margaret Chanler, 35
American higher education, privately supported in 19th century, 4; innovations in 1960's, 230-231
Amherst College, 7
Annandale, John Bard's seat, 2, 14
Arendt, Hannah, 140; bequest to Bard, 141
Artinian, Artine, 107
Arts, the, place of at Bard, 132; under R. Kline, 236; doing and study of, 236
Asip, William, 145, 229
Aspinwall Hall, first built on central campus, 20
Athletics, in 1920's, 78-79; inter collegiate, 79; phased out, 115
Bard College, its autonomy in 1950's, 132; financial deficit 1950's, 146; low morale 1959, 146; relationship with Episcopal Church, 212-214; loosening of ties with Episcopal Church, 212-213; approved for Bundy Program, 215; progress 1960-1974, 238

Bard-St. Stephen's, chronology, 152
Bard family, history of, 12
Bard Fire Department, 126
Bard News Bulletin, origins as World War II Newsletter, 117
Bard, John, 2, 4, 8; traditional founder of St. Stephen's, 12; wealth acquired by marriage, 13; interest in learning and Episcopal Church, 13-14; established Parish school in Tivoli, 14; involvement in early life of St. Stephen's Hall, 21-22; recalled by Mrs. John Hamlin, 21; death of son, 34; leaves St. Stephen's for England, 34; last years, 49; remembered, 49
Bard, Margaret, trustee. St. Stephen's Hall 1860, 19
Bard, William, father of John Bard (quoted), 13
Bard Hall, erected in 1852, 14
Barrytown, 14; described in Rural Essays, 2
Bell, B. I., 62-85; born in Ohio, 62; graduate of University of Chicago, 62; arrival at St. Stephen's, 62; description of, 62; his reaction to St. Stephen's, 63; master plan for St. Stephen's 64-65; his building program, 64-66; his educational philosophy, 67; his writings, 67; Crisis in Education, 68; his ideal college, 68-69; instituted Freshman Course, 69; honors college, 69; dined

- with students, 70-71; his interest in campus life, 71; preaching activities, 71-72; publication of lectures, 72; as fundraiser, 79, 98-99; his fund raising campaign, 80-83; student resentment of, 83; student strike, 83-85; reflection on student strike (quoted), 84; financial crisis, St. Stephen's, 88; letter to Nicholas Murray Butler, 89; relationship with his son, 95; death of his son, 94; letter to Julian Park, 95; remembered, 96; last years at St. Stephen's, 97; resignation from St. Stephen's 100-101; legend of his curse of St. Stephen's, 101; years after St. Stephen's, 102
- Bennington College, association with Bard, 109; joint activities with Bard, 120
- Bertelsmann, Heinz, 129
- Bishop, Elizabeth, 126
- Blanding, Sarah, President of Vassar (quoted), 133
- Bleucher, Heinrich, role at Bard, 140; work on Common Course, 140; his concept of Common Course, 140-141; death, 141
- Blithewood, see Annandale
- Blithewood Estate, part of Zabriskie gift, 134; history of, 136
- Blithewood dormitory, 137
- Bogan, Louise, 126
- Bourne, Dorothy Dulles, influence on College, 128
- Brandeis, Irma, 128
- Bray, Kenneth, Reverend, assistant chaplain, 76; prominent role in 1926 strike, 76; interest in college athletics, 78-79
- Butler, Nicholas Murray, President, Columbia University, 86; association with B. I. Bell, 87-88; merger of Columbia and St. Stephen's, 90; describes Columbia University, 93
- Campus, plans to expand, 122
- Campus life, 25, 30-32, 35-40, 43-44; in the 1920's, 77-79
- Case, James H. Jr., 73, 149; becomes President of Bard, 132; enthusiasm for, 132; his urbanity, 132; his experience, 133; described, 133; quoted in Bardian, 134; presidency (1950-1960) described, 134; his educational program, 139; the Common Course, 139-140; its general plan, 140; relations with the faculty, 146-147; censure of by faculty, 147; resignation, 148
- Church of the Holy Innocents, erected 1857, 15; dedicated to Willie Bard, 15; destroyed by fire, 16-17; rebuilt after fire of 1858, 17; memorial to Willie Bard, 34
- Civil War, little notice of at St. Stephen's, 26-27
- Clermont, 1
- Coeducation, solution to Bard enrollment problem, 117; at progressive colleges, 117; need for dormitory rules, 121; instituted at Bard, 118; ends affiliation with Columbia, 117-118; quality of women students, 121; women attracted to creative arts, 121
- Cole, Lawrence Thomas, fourth Warden of the College, 52; instituted changes in forms of worship, 52-53; introduced more elective courses, 52; resigned wardenship, 53
- Colleges, American, role of religious bodies in founding, 5; prepared men for ministry, 5; broadening of purpose and role, 7
- Columbia University, merger with St. Stephen's, 85-119; public announcement, 91; in the 1920's, 93; affiliation with Bard ended, 117-118
- Commencements, outdoor at St. Stephen's, 25
- Common Course, Case's academic contribution, 139; described, 139; controversy over, 139-140; general plan, 140; importance of director, 140; Heinrich Bleucher's role in, 140-141; its mystique, 141; becomes full-year course, 141
- Crane, Curt Marie, 128
- Crane, Fred, 128
- Curriculum, development under Tewksbury, 103.
See also Tewksbury, Donald.
symposium to discuss, 139
- Davidson, Irville F., description of St.

- Valley, 10; early life and education, 23; ordination, 23; married to Juliet Arnold, 23; Professorship of Mathematics, St. Stephen's, 24; Wardenship (1863-1898), 23-49; educational philosophy, 27-28; defense of St. Stephen's College, 33; and George Hopson, 42; financial operations under, 44-47; building program, 44-46; financial crisis under, 45-46; writings, 47; retirement, 47-48; character and qualities described, 48
- Fairbairn, Henry A., M.D., The Warden, 24
- Fiske, Haley, dominance on Board of Trustees (1914-1929), 57-58
- Fite, Harvey, 107
- Ford Foundation, grant to Bard, 137-138
- Fordham University, 214-215
- Four Quarter Program, attempted at Bard, 141-142; opposition to, 142; rejected, 143; value assessed, 143
- Fraternities, at St. Stephen's, 43
- Frauenfelder, William, 107; role in Military Training Program, 116
- Freeborn, James, chairman, board of Trustees (1939), 111
- Freshman Course, instituted by B. I. Bell, 69
- Fuller, Edward C. Dr., becomes President, 124; academic innovations, 125; his integrated science courses, 125; general academic program under, 125; campus life under, 126-127; financial gains under, 127; resignation from presidency, 128
- Genzmer, George H., chronology of Bard College, 1860-1918, 8
- Gerry, Robert L., his gift to build President's house, 59; support of High Church ritual at Chapel, 59; controversy over High Church ritual, 59
- Given, John L., Jr., gift to Bard, 138
- Gray, Harold, Dr., appointed Dean, 112; education, 112-113; administrative abilities, 113; resignation as president, 123-124; faculty appointed under, 128-132
- Great Depression, impact on St. Stephen's, 92, 99-100; impact on Bard,
- Stephen's, 50-51; teaching career at St. Stephen's, 51; administrative posts held, 51; activities as dean during World War I, 61
- Davis, A. J., see Downing, A. J.
- De Gre, Gerard, 129
- Discipline of Students, 36-39
- Dormitory rules, St. Stephen's, established by faculty, 35; problem of, 122; controversy over, 127
- Downing, Andrew Jackson, 1-3; Treatise on the Theory and Practice of Landscape Gardening, 1; (quoted), 2; social philosophy, 1-2; architectural commissions, 2; influence on Hudson Valley estates, 2; Rural Essays, 2; collaboration with A. J. Davis, 1
- Edwards, Lyford Paterson, 64, 73-74; graduate of University of Chicago, 73; Anglo-Catholic radicalism, 73; influence on social science curriculum, 73; his History of Revolution, 74
- Elective courses, number increased, 52
- Episcopal Church, in the Hudson Valley, 4, 211; dominated by New York City leadership, 4; relationship to the College, 211-215; efforts to recruit students for St. Stephen's, 56-58; fund raising for St. Stephen's, 80; influence on Bard-St. Stephen's, 150
- Episcopal clergy, number graduated from Bard-St. Stephen's (1860-1960), 6, 56, 149
- Episcopal Colleges, Association of, 234
- Episcopal Diocese, New York, rebirth of, 11
- Episcopalian, The*, 32
- Emigre intellectuals, influence at Bard, 130
- Faculty, of Bard-St. Stephen's listed, 178-201; few married men on, 53; power and influence of, 42; heading under Fairbairn, 42-43; hired under B. I. Bell, 73-77; hired under Gray and Fuller, 128-132; report on Common Course, 140
- Faculty meetings, St. Stephen's Hall, 20; under Robert Fairbairn, 28-30
- Fairbairn, Robert B., roots in Hudson

- 108-109, 110
 Griffiths, Richard, becomes director of Physical Plant, 234
 Gummere, "Buzz", 22
 Gymnasium, student campaign to build Hopson Memorial, 57-58; construction interrupted by World War I, 60
- Harris, Thomas Robinson, Reverend, 54
 Harvard College 6
 Hatfield, Edgar, 232
 Hauser, Emil, 130; personal style, 131
 Hegeman Science Building, completed 1925, 66; description, 67
 Higher Education, see American Higher Education
 Hill, John, visit to Bard, 232
 Hirsch, Felix, 130; became head of library, 130; role in faculty governance, 130-131; valedictory letter, 131
- Hirsch, Stefan, 131
 Hodgkinson, Harold, 235
 Hoffman, Charles Frederic, Dr., gifts to St. Stephen's, 45-46; biography, 46; Hoffman Library, 46; endowed lecture-ship at library, 46
 Hopson, George B. Reverend, 24-25; early career, 25; professorship in Latin, 25; secretary to faculty meetings under Fairbairn, 28-29; as faculty member, 42; acting warden (1898-99), 51, (1903-04), 53, (1907-09), 54; Reminiscences of St. Stephen's College, 1910, 50
 Hudson River, dominant factor in Hudson Valley, 4; travel on, 4
 Hudson River Valley, the 1, 2-4; estate culture, 1-3; families associated with, 1-2; setting for Bard College, 2-3, 10; closely associated with St. Stephen's College, 49
 Hungarian Student Program, 1956-57, 143-146; importance for Bard, 143-144; financial support for, 144-145
- Jones, Clinton, brought Reamer Kline to Bard, 229-230
- Kellogg, Flint, 232-233
- Kline, Louise, receives Bard Medal, 1974, 230
 Kline, Reamer, 227-238; his college years, 230; at Episcopal seminary, 230; prominence in Connecticut Diocese, 229; reasons for coming to Bard, 230; initial faculty resistance to, 231; fund-raising efforts, 232; changes in academic program, 232; relations with students, 233; appointments to Board of Trustees, 233; expands development office, 233; Additions and changes in physical plant, 235; faculty hired under, 236
 Koblitz, Robert 145
- Le Duc, Thomas, Piety and Intellect at Amherst College, 1865-1910, 7
 Leigh, John, acting Dean at Bard, 111; his report on Bard, 111-112
 Lensing, William, 129
 Livingston, Robert R., 1
 Lowell, Robert, 126
 Ludlow-Willink Hall, 24; funding to build, 44; designed by Richard Upjohn, 44
- McVickar, John, 4; biography, 8; married to Eliza Bard, 8; role in establishing St. Stephen's, 8; committed to seminary education, 9; letter to New York Diocese (quoted), 9; settled in Hyde Park, 10; at Columbia, 87
 Magee, Christopher, (Class of 1950), 41
 Magoun, G. F., The West, Its Culture and Its Colleges, 6
 Manhattanville College, 215
 Melville, Ward, trustee, 114; interest in Bard, 114-115; gifts to Bard, 122
 Mestre, Harold, Dr., acting Dean, 1936, 110
 Muller, Peter Paul, (Class of 1940), appointed architect, 138
- National Student Association, 127
 Nock, Albert Jay, (class of 1895), 76-77; graduated 1892, returned to teach, 76; his writings, 76-77; discussion of by Peter Witonski, 77; his descriptions of St. Stephen's (quoted), 41

- Obreshkove, Vasil, Dr., 74-75
 Olmstead, Frederick Law, 1
 Orient Hall, fire in, 146
- Poetry Conference at Bard, 126
 Pool, Beekman H. Mrs., plans for campus expansion, 122
 Potter, Eliphalet Nott, candidacy for Wardenship defeated, 52
 Potter, Horatio, 4, 8, 14; elected provisional Bishop (Episcopal) of New York, 11; support of St. Stephen's, 11; letter to John Bard, 1856, 15
 President's House, unfinished until 1960's, 59
 Procter Art Center, 233
 Progressive Colleges, defined, 106; studied by Louis Benezet, 106; Bard associated with, 120
 Progressive education, supported by Bard students, 120, 125; defended in Bardian, 125
 Pruyn, John V. L. Hon., first Chairman of Board, St. Stephen's, 18
- Radio Station, established at Bard, 126
 Rexroth, Kenneth, 126
 Rhinebeck, 39
 Rodgers, William Cunningham, Dr., 55-56; fund raising campaign for St. Stephen's, 57; struggle over High Church and Low Church ritual, 59
 Roman Catholic Church, fear of at St. Stephen's, 31-33
 Roosevelt, Eleanor, at Bard International Student's Conference, 126
 Rueger, William, 233
 St. John the Divine (Cathedral), plan to move St. Stephen's to, 55
 St. John the Evangelist, Church of (Barrytown), 47
 St. Stephen's College, name changed from St. Stephen's Hall, 10; shaped by Hudson River Estates Culture, 3; forces leading to founding, 4; rural setting, 6; established on John Bard Estate, 10; first building program, 19-20; trained men for ministry, 27; rules of order, 35-38; social life, 42-43; fraternities, 43; fiftieth anniversary celebration, 55; character in 1920's, 96; becomes Bard College, 1933, 103;
- reaction of B. I. Bell to, 103; description by Mrs. B. I. Bell, 63; impact of Great Depression on, 92; merger with Columbia University, see Columbia University. See also St. Stephen's Hall
 St. Stephen's Hall, 18, 19; first commencement at, 20
 Schwab, David, 233
 Science courses, strengthened by improved laboratory facilities, 52
 Science Program, integrated course begun, 125; introductory chemistry and physics, 125
 Scott, Henry L., 138
 Sarah Lawrence College, association with Bard, 120; conference on progressive education, 121
 Selinger, Carl, 235
 Seymour, George F. Reverend, elected Warden, St. Stephen's Hall, 19
 Select Committee, to study state aid to private colleges, 214
 Senior Project, in Tewksbury's program, 105
 Shafer, Frederick, 129; candidate for presidency, 129
 Shelov, Sidney, (Class of 1937), appointed architect, 138
 Society for Promoting Religion and Learning, 9, 10, 11, 33, 53, support of St. Stephen's, 17-18
 Sottery, Theodore, Dr., 74
 Steinway, John, 232
 Student Strike 1926, 83-85; B. I. Bell's response to, 84
 Students, influence of, on educational program, 115, 120-122; participation in campus governance, 115; views in campus publications, 115
 Tewksbury, Donald, 102-110; authority on founding American private colleges, 5; Dean at Columbia, 102; move to Annandale, 102; research on American Colleges, 102; knowledge of Far Eastern affairs, 103; curricular development at Bard under, 103-106; his educational program, 104-106; N. M. Butler's reaction to, 105; "inverted pyramid," 105; on progressive education, 107; faculty appointments, 107-108; resignation,

- 1937, 109; compared with B. I. Bell, 110; The Founding of American Colleges and Universities before the Civil War, 5
- Tivoli, 14
- Torok, John, Hired by B. I. Bell, 76; dramatic figure on campus, 76
- Tremblay, Charles, 129
- Trustee, St. Stephen's Hall, first at, 18; Bard-St. Stephen's, listed, 170-178
- Union for Experimenting Colleges and Universities, 234
- Vaux, Calvert, architect, 1
- Wanning, Andrews, 129-130
- Ward Manor, acquisition of property, 234
- Warden, office of, changed to President, 55
- Weiss, Theodore, 129; his writings, 129
- Williams, Paul, 233
- Williams, William Carlos, 126
- Winter Field Period, origin of, 105
- Witonski, Peter, see Nock, A. J.
- Wolff, Werner, 131
- Women, admitted to Bard 1944, 120.
See also Coeducation
- Work program, proposed at Bard, 121
- World War I, impact on St. Stephen's, 61
- World War II, impact on Bard, 116;
Specialized Training Program, 116
- Writers, at Bard after World War II, 132
- Zabriskie, Christian, gift of Blitewood, 135
- Zabriskie family, bequest of Blitewood Estate, 134-135; relationship to Bard, 134