Generating Resistance, Persistence, Presence in the Age of AI Pop-up exhibition at the Center for Experimental Humanities

The booth—designed, built, and managed by Bard students and faculty—will host a pop-up exhibition focused on ways artificial intelligence is reshaping human agency and attention. Special focus on the theme of “resistance” and “human creativity”.

Featuring work by students in the Architecture Department, EH Media Corps., BardBacc and Tania El-Kouri’s class in Performing Political Spaces
