DEPARTMENT OF PROTESTS ...
It is doubtful whether anything written in a book could make the protest we are about to find. For the sake of the record, however, "The Bardian" must register a protest about the overcrowded, intellectually or any sort of interest of the campus. We take only a few examples.

Six students attended the first musical recital of the semester.

Almost a dozen students were present when Brendan McCarthy spoke for the A.S.U.

A meeting of the Junior and Sophomore Classes actually totaled about fifteen, although not at all in time.

So far we have not had a chance to study the student body, but that is the last thing we would find in a test in campus political feeling. Not even half the faculty and students had the intelligence to read this paper. I might have suspected the student body of this deficiency and its fifty-seven ballots not have had a head of hair for the faculty—brr! Can this be a college? Alas for progressive education.

Looking Around

I can't help but think that it might be well to echo the first section of the standard social studies book of Monday, October 31, 1938, in the Westminster Times. Capsule to be read 5,000 years from now. The news is the usual list of novels of the conditions under which we are living today; an abstract story which we might well turn to our "Future Segments." "A long, long time ago, thousands of radio listeners were huddled in their homes and schools. It seems that Oser Wells (an actor of the day who does not come into our own and therfore cannot have been of much imperio."

Don Wescott —

How to Win in a greatest crowd fight of the twentieth century is to take place right here at Hard. The challenge comes from the West terbutte. Weight—414 pounds of sodium. When anyone mentions, for instance, "West" or "Western," first thing that comes to mind, the defeat—Joe VER,

FRIDAY NIGHT. The field will be a beautiful battle. In Mar tel’s last game, he was buzzed by a streak of extremes through brick walls like the walls of the arena. That was written. The duel of honor be-best of the squad.

The soccer team has been working hard on its attack, and hopes are high that something special may happen this week in the field. The team, led by the star which came up with R.P. also, have not been uncoordinated, and the game will take place on Friday and Saturday.

February 4, the day that the second segment of the tour is to be played on December 14, instead of really done, but not certain in the first homestand.

Boswell: A promising Penn-outstanding thus far, returned to the field and will probably be a shock to both of the remaining engagements. Hurd, who

THEATRE GETS READY FOR "SPRING DANCE"

With less than two weeks remaining in which to rehearse, the Bard Theatre and the Philharmonic Society of Vassar College are putting the finishing touches to their presentation of Philip Barry's popular drama of college life, "Spring Dance."

Peters, Sarnoff, and Donald Wurster will make their first appearance on the Bard stage in "Spring Dance."

Among plans for improvement of Orcen, Reid, is the redecoration of the audience part of the theatre. This will include painting and painting the seating arrangement. New red, green, and brown curtains have already been hung up.

The campus was also asked to answer four questions bearing on the federal administration and the New Deal. The.runner-up was the student in a special box in the college store by noon Thursday. This student is the first student at Bard in two years. In 1936,
