Forum Sending Members to Model Senate At Vassar

Bard Delegation To Represent States of Washington and Missouri

Four members of the Bard Forum will represent two states of the regional Model Senate. The delegates, five university and college students, will be conducted at Vassar on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Three national problems will be presented to the group in its two-day session. The measures facing the representatives are: (1) a bill to provide for the establishment of unemployment insurance for all workers and farmers unemployed through no fault of their own for the four months after insolvency is provided at the request of the federal government and employers under the administration of the Secretary of Labor; (2) a bill to make innumerable the activities of the federal Treasury to assist the economic development of the community; and (3) a bill to amend several of the existing acts of the League of Nations.

The bard men, Martin Goldstein, and Arthur Kent, will represent the states of Washington and Missouri, respectively. Each of the two men is a member of the campus Model Senate. Mr. Goldstein will divide his time between the two states and will be responsible for representing the state of Washington, the former to serve on the same committee to which he belongs, and the latter to consider unemployment insurance.

The Vassar Political Association, of which Katharine McKinley, president, is member, sponsors the conference. In regard to the Model Senate, Mr. Kent, "We are wondering where the United States stands in the situation, and what a movement that has taken under grandiose forms and activities is tendered before the student. Young people can tell whether they are interested in what is happening in Washington and the capitals of our states."

"The future belongs to us. We will inherit the burden of taxation. We will have to carry on whatever it is that is decided by the will of the people."

Let us make a special request that the next play we see should be our last, for we are sure that we will not have a better time than the last. Large changes were called for, and the changes made were found to be most artistically executed, and the final result was nothing less than a masterpiece.

Perhaps one of the most remarkable features of the production was the high efficiency of the acting. The production was designed by Hugh Gage, ‘37, and constructed by the members of the Bard Theatre under the direction of Prof. Howard D. Brown. Their knowledge and skill are such that they made Miss Elisa Frame who rendered invaluable service as the advisor of the production. College Peace Poll Against Entering League; Munitions Control Favored
with the Association of College Edtors whose members are editors of campus publications.

In view of the repetition for accuracy which The Literary Lit-gest polls have established with smaller percentages of returns, it is safe to say that the results of the College Peace Poll portray an accurate cross-section of opinion in American colleges.

In answer to the question, "Do you believe that a national policy of an American, Navy and Air Force second to none is a sound method of insuring us against being drawn into another great war?" only eighteen colleges voted "Yes."

The League of Nations received a favorable majority in fifty-five colleges; an unfavorable vote in sixty-three. In answer to the list of colleges which opposed entry into the League of Nations, it is fair to draw these conclusions:

In general, those colleges which have well established reputations for liberal educational policies, are the colleges in which a majority of undergraduates voted in favor of entry into the League of Nations.

All women's colleges voted in favor of entry into the League. All the Catholic colleges on the list opposed entry.

"It is interesting to note that in the Chicago South, where economic internationalism is synonymous with economic security, with few exceptions the colleges voted a favorable vote against entry into the League of Nations.

It is also interesting to compare returns from colleges in the same state on the League question. The University of Chicago opposed entry; the University of Illinois opposed, voting against entry into the League of Nations.

The plans for Saturday, March 2, promise a full day of activities.
An original play, sponsored by the American Federation of Labor and the state college, will be presented at 8 p.m. at the State Theater. The program will include the traditional Hymn, "The League of Nations." The play will be followed by a discussion of the League's work and its future.

The League of Nations received an overwhelming majority of votes in favor of entry into the League of Nations. The League of Nations was organized in 1920 in order to promote world peace and to prevent future wars.

I give you the mildest smoke, the best-tasting smoke. You wonder what makes me different. I'll tell you. It's center leaves.
I spurn the little, sticky, top leaves... so bitter to the taste. I scorn the coarse bottom leaves, so harsh and unappetizing. I careful of your friendship, for I am made only of the mild, fragrant, expensive center leaves.

Skiing Enthusiasts Take Advantage of Heavy Snow Skiing, one of the revived and renowned sports under the new Budd program, is receiving turnouts in a small but consistent number on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. This group, under the leadership of Dr. Barnes, practices informally in the afternoon, weather permitting, on the Zabriskie estate.

To date, the trips have included a visit to Blainville, ten miles east of Rock City, which is easily accessible and well suited for men learning to ski. At present, the members comprise the skiing group include Welling, Brewer, Peet, Dierst, Gildersleeve, Kirk, Owen, and McGee. For the future, providing enough interest is secured, a trip may be made to Bolton, Connecticut, about forty diles away, which has excellent skiing facilities.
Dean In Atlantic City Writing Catalogue

The Dean will be absent from the College for two weeks in Atlantic City, preparing for the next year's College catalogue for the press. He will also deliver an address before the Convention of the American Association for the Advancement and Personal Association. The Catalogue will be ready for his return; he is expecting to visit a number of other colleges and universities before returning to the Bard campus.

College Population Increased by 10% Throughout U.S.

Number of Freshmen More Numerous In Almost Every College

New York, N.Y., (U.S.A.)—An encouraging average enrollment increase of 10% or over last year is evident from informal reports sent to student government officials to the National Student Federation. When it is remembered that the average enrollment increase is credited. Federal relief funds for the first time in many years are responsible for at least 10,000 new students registration, about 6% of the total collegiate population; a lesser number in a few great many institutions may account for registration of some who otherwise would not be able to afford attendance.

Freshmen are more numerous in almost every college in the country. The class of 1938 at Columbia University is the largest in history, at 3,001, and at Wesleyan is the largest in ten years. Universities such as Harvard, Brown and Colgate, which have definite freshmen limitations, report an 18 per cent increase in applications.

To the Middle West there is no single report indicating enrolment decrease and on the West Coast, where the University of California at Los Angeles increased its freshman enrollment by 12% or 14 per cent increase, there is a definite indication that final figures will prove an upswing higher than the national average.

George L. Ackerman is Appointed To Sports Staff

George L. Ackerman, a graduate of Springfield College with the class of 1923, has been appointed assistant director of athletics at Bard for the semester now in session.

Mr. Ackerman was for several years associate director of athletics at the Horace Mann School in New York, where he had a significant record as coach of football and basketball. He was also instrumental in starting up a strong program of intramural sports.
