STATE COLLEGE
EASY FOR CRIMSON

Bewildering Forward Pass Attack Accounts For 53 Points In First Half.

The Varsity had little difficulty trouncing the New York State Teachers' College by a score of 53-0 at Zabriskie Field on Saturday. Eight touchdowns were made during the first half as a result of a fine forward passing attack as ever seen on any local gridiron. At the beginning of the third quarter Major Prince sent the entire second team into the game, and, although unable to gain materially, they had little difficulty holding their ground. After a 13-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, with six minutes to play the Varsity again took the field, but, handpicked by several penalties, the team did not score.

Captain Simmons won the toss and elected to kick off. The State College, failing to penetrate the Crimson line, punted to Bing White who, assisted by some excellent interference, ran forty-five yards for the first touchdown of the game. Deloria sent a perfect drop-kick between the posts, and the Varsity led 7-0. State College again received but punted immediately. On the first play Deloria threw a long pass to Kilby who crossed the line for a second touchdown. Deloria missed his try for goal. The Varsity kicked off but took the ball on downs. A short pass to Kilby, followed by a long one to Lyte, accounted for a third touchdown. Deloria was successful in his try for goal by drop-kick. State College chose to kick off. After carrying the ball to scoring distance, Deloria hauled a short pass to White who made the necessary distance. Deloria kicked the goal. Simmons made the fifth touchdown for Stein's on a plunge at the goal line. The Varsity had taken the lead 14-0.

The try for extra point failed. Several minutes later, standing on his own thirty-five yard line, Deloria threw a pass which traveled fifty-five yards before it landed in the waiting arms of Kilby and was unanswerable for another touchdown. The try at goal again failed. The Varsity received and, after carrying the ball to the State two yard line, Deloria plunged through tackle for a touchdown. The extra point was good.

Constitution of Undergraduates Abolished

Convocation Decides to Govern Itself by a System of By-Laws.

At a meeting of the undergraduates, held in Preston Hall on Tuesday evening, the move was to do away completely with the present constitution and to enforce student government by a series of by-laws. The President and faculty had refused to ratify the constitution drawn up by the students last year unless a number of changes first be made. In addition to the above objection a number of students had complained that the document called for an operation too unwieldy and complicated government and that it would never be able to function properly. A more simple code of laws was demanded and the recent suggestion of a faculty committee that the idea of a constitution be given up and that a system of by-laws be substituted, the fewer the better, was eagerly taken up and presented to Convocation.

President Bell addressed the meeting and explained his position in the matter. He said that he wished to see the mix-up straightened out by the students themselves as soon as possible and at the same time advised several forms of government, any of which would be satisfactory to the faculty and himself. He concluded with the statement that he is heartily in favor of the idea of the students governing themselves but that the student government could not interfere with the provisions of the Charter of the College, the statutes of the Trustees, the by-laws of the Faculty.

After the President's talk, power was voted to the student council to draw up a series of by-laws and present them to Convocation at a future meeting to be held in the near future. The student council was instructed to have regard for the following points in drawing up these by-laws.

All in Readiness for Junior Prom

The Campus is all set in eager anticipation of the Junior Prom which is to take place on Friday evening in Memorial Gymnasium. A number of the students have signed their intention to attend and dances are already reported to be at a premium. It is said that the class of '24 has been making elaborate preparations and that the college is due for the best Prom in its history.

The usual round of entertainments will be in order at the various fraternity houses on Saturday.

Alumni Lectures

Monday evening, November 6th, Albert J. Noe '93 delivered a lecture upon "Some humbug of present day civilization." He prefaced his remarks with the statement that whatever he might say would necessarily be an expression of the views of a literary man. Mr. Noe is Literary Editor of the Freeman. He began with some words about the humbug of patriotism. The love of country, he said, is one of the most laudable features of any society; but humbug masquerading as patriotism, and making a base end, politics bolstered up by the misleading propaganda of cheap and fluent journalism, has come to signify patriotism in our minds, and marked another triumph of materialism. His next point was the humbug of democracy. He asserted that democracy does not exist, but that there is, instead, an ominous masquerading in its place. We define democracy as "a state of society where all may vote." This is not so. True democracy is the result not of universal suffrage but of universal property-ownership. Next he passed to the humbug of equality. The only equality which today exists

Varsity Battles Connecticut Aggies to 12-12 Tie

Thrilling Pass, Deloria To White, As Game Ends, Saves Team From Defeat.

The Crimson, fighting uphill all the way, played the strong Connecticut Aggies to a 12 tie at Storrs on Saturday, November 11th. Probably few games in the history of the gridiron have had a more thrilling finish and none a more glorious one for a St. Stephen's team. With but a few seconds to play and apparent defeat by a score of 12-6, Deloria dropped back to his own twenty yard line and received a long pass from the center. Running out towards the sidelines, as if for a wide dash around end, suddenly he straightened up and threw a long pass. Meanwhile, White had managed to slip by the Aggie secondary defence and had raced the ball thirty yards with a start. As he crossed the goal line, the score was 12-12, and the game was declared a tie.
SMALL FAVORS

With every passing day many members of the faculty or student body hear and talk, or do something which has news value for the Messenger. Why not give us the benefit of your ideas? The college paper is supposed to be the paper, but it can not be in fact so in fact until you personally have helped to fill its columns. Ten or a dozen persons, however anxious they may be, do not help but overlook many timely items. On the other hand, if everyone on campus jot down notes which happen to occur to him, it will be possible for us to publish “all the news that’s fit to print,” and emit much that is not. Filler is of little interest at any time, and is more important when good topics are going to waste for lack of notice. In order to prevent this state of affairs the Messenger Box has been placed in the entrance to the dining room. If you have of any proposed college activity, have some view to express upon current events, or even hear an unusually clever joke, for the sake of propriety and good news, note it—oh, better still, write it down and drop your effort in the appropriate box. You can help to lighten the work of the editors, and also to make the Messenger more completely an organ of the entire campus. Surely there is, in the back of your head, at least one item you have always wanted to see in print, but which somehow has continually escaped our attention. Go write it up now!

ANOTHER HUMBUG

Any system that does not work is a poor system, and should be replaced by another and better system. The present cut system quite obviously does not work. In the first place, there is a decided lack of unanimity among the Professors, regarding application. Some opposed to the required attendance at classes, do not turn in absences. Others, while they sign the record, count even lateness an absences, and these, the absence committee, while making a record, have a different idea of the matter, regularly and automatically excuse. In the second place, there seems to be no reliable standard as to what constitutes a legitimate excuse for absence. At one time, mere trifling excuses have sufficed to remove a cut; at another time, a really good excuse is rejected. Like statute law, our cut system does not appeal to the conscience, and is therefore difficult to enforce.

majority of the faculty have expressed themselves as being in favor of a more lenient system. The President himself, only recently stated that if he had his way there would be required attendance at all, although he thinks that the American student is too irresponsible for this. It has been suggested by one member that there be no requirement of attendance at classes by upper-classmen, but that the freshmen and sophomores, being more irresponsible, should still have the prodding of a cut.

It seems to us that a fair system, and one which would be far more workable than the present one, would be to allow a week’s cuts (3 in each subject, and to forbid any other cuts, except for sickness under the doctor’s care, under penalty of a deduction of $5 for each cut as what it is.

However the matter may be finally decided, it is earnestly hoped that all will participate in the fair-mindedness of all will, on that account, be adhered to more rigidly. For what greater humber as that which is set up to be followed, and is not?

BUCK UP!

It is still a long way to mid-year’s, but bad habits are now in the forming among the freshmen. Far be it from us to find fault with all of ’26, for we were in the same peanalytics state ourselves much less than a decade ago, but we wish to pass some advice which will be just as useful to you as it was to us. Be aware of the wary cut! We do not go so far as to say that the faculty take delight in giving them to us, but they wear unyielding grins when the marks come out minus six or eight for two cuts. They are so certain of things to have when the averages are computed. If you insist on going to the dances in the neighborhood, go to it, but don’t sleep through classes the next morning. Take your naps in class as usual or make sleep up the night before, but get your names on the roll-calls. Better men than you or we have departed hence in shame and sorrow on account of the cuts they took. Be ye warned: be wary and do not likewise!

Dragon Club Elects New Members

At a special meeting held on November 19th, the Dragon Club, acting under the new ruling requiring an average of 80% for three succeeding semesters instead of 85%, elected the following men to membership:

Frank Louis Brown, ’24
Roy M. Phillips, ’23
Mr. Howell’s averages for the last three semesters are 82, 85 and 85 respectively. Mr. Brown’s averages are only slightly lower; 86, 81, and 82. No other men in the college are at present eligible.

FRATERNITY NOTES

Freshman Organize Debating Club

At a meeting held on Friday evening, Nov. 10th, those men chosen to represent the Freshman Public Speaking Contest drew up the following resolution:

“We, the undersigned, elected by vote of the Freshman Public Speaking Classes at St. Stephen’s College, in the year 1922, to represent them in the Freshman Public Speaking Contest to be held this year, having taken the initiative in forming a freshman debating club, do hereby resolve and determine to form the same. We thoroughly believe in such an organization for the purpose of perfecting our public speaking ability, for intellectual profit, and for the advantages to be found in argumentative debate.”

Signed: T. Irwin Probert, Chair.3

A. W. DeWright, J. C. Ward, Jr., V. Graham Davey

Paul Titus

 motion carried.

Freshman public speaking classes this year has given its hearty endorsement to the organization. It was also resolved to hold a debate in So, Hoffman Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 17th, the topic to be: “Resolve that the Honor System is practical at St. Stephen’s.” Titus and Probert were chosen as the affirmative, and Fackard and Davey the negative. Hamilton agreed to act as introductory speaker, while Dr. Wilson kindly consented to be the judge. The debate was voted a success by Dr. Wilson who awarded the decision to the affirmative. He then agreed to act as an advisor to the club in the future.

ALUMNUS LECTURES

(Continued from page 1) between any two men lies in the fact that they are both animals, dependent upon the land for their common subsistence. There equality extends only to the equality in the degree of equality in nature. In the old saying ‘the common man has the same right to similar participation in a common source of subsistence. Mr. Nock’s last point was the humbug of modern law. In the old days under the common law crimes ‘Malum in se’ brought about an automatic enforcement of the law. Today statute laws attempt to punish crimes that are ‘malum prohibibitum;’ and since public opinion does not automatically back up such laws, the entire tradition of modern jurisprudence is based upon humbug.

After his lecture Mr. Nock gave an interesting ten-minute talk about the pleasures to be found in a classical education. The text of his remarks was that, while the classics had never directly prepared him to earn a cent, neither had they ever caused him difficulty in discharging the normal responsibilities of life, and so he was able to take much pleasure from everything that life had offered him. This statement should not be taken as a measure of his earning capacity, for Mr. Nock enjoys an international reputation as a writer of both Greek and Latin verse.
State College

The ball see-sawed back and forth all during this quarter, the Scrubs easily having the better of the fray but as able to score. Strother, Clark, and Walker contributed some fine gains both thru the line and around the ends. Pfouts and Moser made some good tackles also.

Towards the end of the last quarter the Varsity was recalled to the game in order to give the first string substitute an opportunity. But the team seemed unable to hit its previous stride and the game was over.

A number of remarkable features characterized the game. Two touchdowns were scored in the first two and one-half minutes of play, which, taking into consideration the fact that the Varsity kicked off on each occasion, constitutes a record. Every man on the squad was put in at some period or other and all responded well. Lynne, center tailback, playing his first game at end, showed an uncanny aptitude both for catching forward passes and for smothering State plays. Deloria, Kilby and White demonstrated the power of the Crimson aerial offense and Simmons, again at halfback, dominated the game from the quarterback position all the way.

Constitution of Under-Grades Abolished

1. The executive authority of convocation shall be vested in a student council consisting of the President of Convocation and one member of each of the recognized fraternities and one member of the non-society group.

2. The student council shall not authorize corporal punishment.

3. A petition signed by at least ten members of convocation may bring about a referendum.

4. Proposed by-laws must receive at least three-fourths vote of convocation for acceptance.

It was also the prevailing opinion that all meetings of the student council which might require legal action should be open.

It is reported that the student council has been in conference with President Bell since this meeting of convocation and that a series of by-laws, containing all of the essential features of the above, is being drawn up and that the whole matter of student government will be settled in a satisfactory manner very shortly.

Varsity Battles Connecticut Aggies to 1-12

Simmons, Captain of the team and regular end, was placed in the quarterback position at the last minute. Harvey Simmonds, the regular quarterback, was out of the game following an attack of appendicitis. Willard, the second string quarter, has a broken nose and Noble, who played the position so well last week, did not make the trip on account of his injured leg. Despite his inexperience, St. Simons ran the team remarkably well, showing surprising aptitude in locating the weak spots in the Aggie defence.

Kiwanis Club
Hears Dr. Edwards

Last week our Professor of Sociology, Dr. Lyford P. Edwards journeyed to Newburgh, N. Y., and addressed the Kiwanis Club of that city on the subject of internal conditions in Germany of which he had gained first hand knowledge during his trip abroad this summer.

In the course of his remarks he stated that Germany owes its success, both in and out of the country and without, more money than is the value of all the property in Germany. The indemnities placed upon Germany by the Allies after the War in many times more than she can possibly pay. One of the ablest economists in England, Keynes, had figured ten billion dollars as the utmost that Germany could pay. Her actual indemnity amounts to more than three times this figure. As a result of this staggering debt, the standard of living of the German worker, always lower than in America, has fallen so alarmingly low that he can be said to be merely existing. Discontent is rife, and an outbreak imminent, such as turned Russia Bolshevik. If the Allies wish peace they must ask for less, for otherwise, there will be a political upheaval that must place in power a government that will repudiate all debts.

Europe, he seriously believes, is on the verge of another and more terrible disaster than the World War. America could be instrumental in preventing this, if she would adopt a stern policy of demanding that the debts owed her by the European Nations be paid, for it would make them feel that they must work to raise the money, instead of spending their energy in squabbling among themselves.

Scubs Lose to Middletown H. S. 26-0

On November 11 the Seconds lost to the heavy Middletown team, 26-0. The fact that Middletown beat Newburgh, 27-6, shows the Scrubs improvement.

The home team scored once in the first, twice in the second, and once in the last period. Between the touchdowns the game was very closely contested, the Scrubs gaining almost as much ground as the victors. Every man was fighting and the line held well. The backfield showed a marked improvement since the Port Jervis game. Struder did some brilliant plugging. The line-up:

Organ Recitals Prove Popular

The half-hour of organ music just preceding Chapel on Wednesday evenings is proving its popularity by a number who attend. For the past two weeks Clyde C. Clark has been the organist, and his renditions have been particularly pleasing. His programs have provided a delightful combination of operatic and lighter pieces. Perhaps we have been most pleased with his rendering of "Stabat Mater," Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata," Transcription of "Il Triumva," Chamions "Beaux Dames," and "Haravcolo" from Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman."

For two seasons Clark has had charge of the music and summer training at Camp Delhi, which is maintained for the Choir of Trinity, New York. Retiring, who is organist of Albany's largest Presbyterian Church, is going to play for us soon, as well as John Lindsey, another artist of no little technique. All these men are Freshmen.

THE REv. DR. Stetson
Preaches Here

The Rev. Caleb Stetson of Trinity Church, New York City, was here to preach on Sunday morning, November 19th. His text, taken from St. Paul’s epistle to the Romans, was on "Standards of Manhood,” he said, “are too apt to be those of his physical abilities. There is something more demanded, a strength of mind and spirit as well, which will prove him to be a man when a crisis arises.”

"The man of the nineteenth century was a scientist with but a vague idea of a soul. Where the ancient Greeks claimed descent from the gods,
he traced his descent back to the ape.
The man of today, however, is a machine for the advance of civilization.
He is either crushed altogether by the machine or else loses his identity and becomes a mere cog. Beauty is lost in the field of science due to the dim and squarish of the cities.
The hope of man and the world in the Spirit of God, but it rests with mankind as a whole far more than with the individual. Those who live by the Spirit of God are the sons of God."
