MUMMERS PLAY TO CROWDED HOUSE

Spring Trilogy Excels Former Productions.

On the evening of May seventeenth the Mummers set a new standard for campus theatricals when they produced their spring bill, which consisted of three plays of an humorous nature. The first, "Where but in America," a farce dealing with the servant problem, was chosen from among the Atlantic Monthly plays. The second, "Fame and the Poet," was one of Lord Dun-an's satire upon the fate of an artist who is broken by the blight of popular approval. The third, a one-act comedy by Louisa Saunders, was called "The Knife of Hearts!" It was a comedy show dealing with the history of the familiar verse songs about the Knife and the Toads, and mocked painfully at the practice of following traditions to gratify public taste.

The first two plays were coached by Mr. Voorhees, and the third by President Bell. A pleasant feature of all three was the costuming, part of which was done by the ladies of the campus and part by a professional costumer. It will be noted that the budget for next year provides for an appropriation to meet future needs along this line. The scenery also calls for special commendation; it was done, as usual, by G. S. King, Propz to the college.

It is to be regretted that the unavoidable May rush to studies prevents the production of the plays off campus, as had been planned. An appreciative audience crowded the gymnasium to the limit, but the amount of labor expended in the coaching and rehearsals merits still greater publicity. It is now hoped that "The Knife," with two companion-pieces, may be produced again in the fall; in that case efforts will be made to secure a theatre for them in Poughkeepsie or some other nearby metropolis.

Class of '24 Elects Senior Class Officers

Shaw Chosen President

A final meeting of the present Junior Class for the purpose of electing officers for their senior year was held on Sunday afternoon, May 26th. The elections resulted as follows: President, H. Reynolds Shaw; Vice President, Ernest Everett; Secretary, Harvey Simmons; and Treasurer, Thomas Richay.

TEEN TEAM FACES HARD LINES

Love to Poughkeepsie Veterans, 9-3. Fresh in Tie with Kingston High.

The St. Stephen's net team journeyed down to Poughkeepsie on May 20, and met with their first set back of the season at the hands of the local tennis club. The Crimson players were not matched for the older and more experienced Poughkeepsie men, but did very well, in view of the great odds against which they were fighting. For instance, Homer, who defeated Farris, was number 20 in the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, ranking six times a champion, and most of the younger quartet would not be forced behind him in speed and skill.

Dr. Wilson saved the day for S. Stephen's when, after the Crimson boycotts had lost six singles and two doubles matches, he defeated P. I. 20-7, 8-6. A few minutes later Libaire registered a second collection victory, nailing out E. S. Nickerson after a long uphill battle. Fortunately, the most spectacular and closest match of the afternoon went to St. Stephen's. Long after the other players had left the courts Farris and Titus fought a see-saw contest against Plat and Barnard until, after two hours of extremely hard play, they emerged victors at 10, 8, 5, 6.-2.

Summarized: Singles: Singles, H. W. Garrney defeated Henry Farris 6-1, 6-0; R. G. Garrison defeated Powers 6-3, 6-1; Plott defeated Richay 6-1, 6-1; Bedell defeated Willard 9-7, 6-0; Schawartz defeated Titus 6-2, 7-5; Selden defeated Platt 6-1, 7-5; Nickerson lost to Libaire 6-1, 5-7, 7-9; P. I. Courtyard lost to Dr. Wilson 4-6, 4-6.

Doubles: Harrington and Garvey won from Willard and Powers 6-1, 6-2; Bedell and Gates won from (Continued on page 2)

MESSNER BOARD ELECTED FOR 1923-4

Libaire Chosen Editor-in-Chief—Several Additions to Staff

At a conclusion of the Messenger board on Friday, May 25th, a new staff was chosen to publish the "Messenger" and the "Proof Sheet" for the coming year. This choice was subsequently approved by vote of Convocation.

Libaire was re-elected as editor-in-chief. Tongue was retained as an associate editor. Variances caused by the graduation of Simmons and by Andrews' resignation, were filled by the work of Hynes and Vogt. Two new associate editorships were created in order to care for the increased burden of publication that is expected next year, and these were filled by the election of Charles Wilson and Gilbert Smith.

Gilbert King was re-elected as exchange editor. Paulclark was elected circulation manager to take the place of Wrede. The three reporters, Graver, Shoever and Titus, were retained, with the understanding that no reporters would hereafter be chosen from the freshman class.

By far the biggest change was made in the business department. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Hermann Smith, who has efficiently headed that branch for two years, was filled by the election of Monroe; and as his assistants were chosen Scott, Phister, and Woodruff.

This brings the Messenger staff to a total of fifteen men, the largest in its history, and representative of all groups on the campus. With this staff and the support of the student body, it is expected that next year the publications will be bigger and better than ever.

NINE DEFEATED

By C. C. N. Y.

Purple Gets Lead in First Set

The Crimson nine succumbed to the heavy hit-work of the City College aggregation in a game played at Lewiston Stadium, New York. Saturday morning, May 19. The team played well throughout the game, but were not able to come through with the hits at the critical times. Stickle took the mound for St. Stephen's and with the exception of the first and seventh innings succeeded in preventing the City Collegians from making any very favorable advances toward the ruby.

Boutsom was the first man to reach first for the Crimson, but he died on second when White whiffed after several long foul drives. The purple batters rapped Stickle for six hits in their first turn at bat, and gathered four runs as a result of their timely work. They scored one more in the second inning, while the only score for the visiting team came in the third, when Stickle crossed the plate after knocking the only three-bagger of the game.

From the third until the seventh neither side was able to get any men in, although the opponents had the bases filled twice. Moses, the first man up in the seventh, was hit by the pitched ball; and the remainder of the inning was devoted to hitting and walking, until Stickle again tightened up and retired the side after they had added six more tallies to their score. The ninth inning was fruitful for either side, not a man reaching first base.

VALE!

Another precedent has gone by the board. It was once the custom at St. Stephen’s to burn retiring professors of history in effigy; this June the campus unites in a chorus of regret at the departure of Dr. Muller. His two years at Annandale have taught him to respect his many talks with the students and faculty, and all who have worked under his direction bear witness to the dynamic and inspiring forcefulness of his personality. The Cambridge Theological Seminary, to which he goes, gains greatly at our expense.

Big Program For Commencement Week

Three Days Crowded With Events

Commencement this year, which is to take place on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 12th, will be surrounded by numerous auxillary events beginning Saturday, June 9th, and extending over the first three days of the week following. The program covers an extensive variety of activities—religious services, sporting events, meetings, luncheons, banquets and a dance, in addition to the regular graduation exercises. On Saturday there will be a return match with the Poughkeepsie Tennis Club, but the real commencement program will not be inaugurated until the next Sunday, June 10th. On this day there will be an early celebration of the Holy Communion, followed by a Choral Exsuffract at ten-thirty, which will be the occasion of the Baccalaureate Sermon, to be preached this year by the Reverend Cameron Davis, Rector of Trinity Church, Buffalo. In the evening the graduating class will execute and create their long-cherished allegories with all the time-honored ceremony befitting the occasion. The next day, June 11th, will again be served with a celebration of Holy Communion. At ten o’clock in the morning the tennis matches will be held which will decide the victors, in singles and doubles, of the annual tennis tournament. At two in the afternoon an interclass baseball game will be staged between the seniors and freshmen. Each team will be representative, and will include all the members of the classes who are on the baseball squad, so a hard fought contest is expected.

In the evening, the commencement dinner, tendered to the graduates by the Dragon Club, will be held in the Memorial Gymnasium. This information is one of the most popular of social events of the year, and promises this June to be better than ever.

Commencement day will be opened by a corporate communion both of students and alumni. At ten there is to be a trustee meeting, and at ten-thirty the annual meeting of the Alumni Association. The alumni will be served with luncheon in Protestant Hall at two o’clock, and immediately after luncheon the formal opening of the new dormitory will take place. The final and foremost event, the solemn awarding of prizes, degrees, and diplomas will take place in the chapel at 3:45 P. M. The evening will be given over to the annual banquets and reunions of the various fraternal bodies.

Water Supply Completely Financed

It was discovered, when work was being started for the new water supply, that the old overhead tanks were in such bad condition that they would have to be entirely rebuilt before further use. Investigation showed that it would be cheaper to tear down the unsightly blots against the blue, and to build instead underground concrete tanks with pressure pumps for filling them, the total capacity of the new tanks to be about forty thousand gallons. The cost of this added improvement, which will be installed by the end of the summer, will amount to $6,500.

The money has been furnished by the trustees, as follows: Dr. Albeer, $5,000; A. H. Field, Jr., $500; Ida Fiske, $500; Henry Young, $300.

Budget Adopted For 1923-4

Expenditures Tripled in Past Four Years

The budget for next year was adopted at the May meeting of the Board of Trustees. It is not possible at this time to give all details, but the main figures, which may be of interest, run as follows: advertising, $2,000; athletics, $1,330; laboratory, $2,500; library, $3,725; bursar’s expenses, $800; catalogues, $450; costumes for plays, $175; cartage, etc., $550; chapel, $400; dispensary, $1,750; food supplies, $20,653; furniture, $500; household supplies, $600; heat and light, $12,650; ice, $175; kitchen supplies, $350; lectures, $500; postage, $156; printing, $75; pension premiums, $977; prizes, $100; repairs, $2,650; student’s board, $5,000; salaries, $19,500; stationery and printing, $700; taxi, $300; telephone, $375; travel, $750; water, $127.70; Total, $109,195. To help pay the above, the budget counts on one hundred and ten students, some at the old and some at the new rates, yielding in all $32,000 in tuition fees. Various grants yield the college $26,000, and it receives $9,000 yearly in interest upon investments. The estimated deficit is $16,125. The budget runs from July first, ‘23, through June thirty-first, ‘24, and does not plan to meet interest costs nor insurance, which are handled separately.

Three Honorary Degrees This Commencement

At the latest meeting of the board of trustees President Bell was in-structed to confer three honorary degrees this June commencement. They will be—

The degree of Master of Arts upon Miss H. F. Abbe, in recognition of the great services he has rendered in a lifetime spent in the development of American vaudeville from its “variety show” of thirty years ago to the artistic achievements of the present day; and because he has, for the first time in the history of things theatrical, developed among entertainers a cooperative benevolent society for mutual service—the National Vaudeville Artists—whose membership numbers many thousands.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity upon the Rev. John A. Staunton, Jr., B. A., priest in charge of the Mission to Saint Mary the Virgin in Sagada, Philippine Islands; in recognition of many of imaginative, constructive, and successful work among a primitive people, the Igorot.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity upon the Rev. Wallace J. Gardner, M. A., rector of Saint Paul’s Church, Flatbush, Long Island; in recognition of a remarkably successful upbuilding of a great parish, and of scholarly preaching. Mr. Gardner is one of the few Americans ever to preach both in St. Paul’s Cathedral, London, and in Westminster Abbey.

Tennis Team Faces Hard Lines

Andrews and Rice of ‘24 and ‘23, Flatt and Barnard lost to Ferris and Titus 8-16, 6-3, 2-6. Underhill and Keith went down to Gruver and Gifford, 7-5, 6-4. Reynolds and Swift lost to Myers and Leenhof 6-2, 6-1.

After the matches the team was entertained at dinner, and the game was a very enjoyable dance, by the tennis club. The return match on June 9 is awaited with pleasure.

“Proph”—Kingston 3

On May 26th, the Freshman Tennis Team scored a tie against the representatives of the Kingston High School on the latter’s courts. In the singles Ferris, Leslie and Titus, in the order named, encountered little opposition in their matches; but Pow-ers fell a victim to the consistent chopping of Stelle, the Kingston star, and was defeated 6-3, 6-4.

However, with the score three to one in favor of the “Proph” prospects for a St. Stephen’s victory were to look bright; but such was not the case. Both doubles teams, consisting of Leslie and Gruver and Ferris and Rice, however, were beaten, leaving the matches at three all.

A return match will be played at Annandale on May 30.

Board of Athletic Control Appointed

By a resolution of the board of trustees, passed last week in New York at their spring meeting, the matter of athletic control has been settled for the time being. Of late there has been some confusion in regard to this matter. Before the war all affairs athletic were wholly in the hands of the students. In those days the college took very little interest in sports, and provided no athletic director. One thing about this was that Dr. Bell did when he became president was to establish a department of physical training, and to provide for an athletic director who should have a seat and a vote on the faculty. The Athletic Association still continued, however, and there has been much uncertainty as to just where the functions of the ath
Freshmen Encore

In the second of the unavoidable encounters on the baseball field this year, the freshmen again proved their undoubted and undeniable superiority over their rivals of the class of ’25. It seemed as if they were determined not to waste the energy which had been stored up for the Tug-of-War of the previous day. Instead of jumping in the creek when the soph. were so backward about coming forward to the stream, they immediately proclaimed a moral victory and proceeded to the diamond to sneak in a little extra practice.

Four hits and three lifeless gave the freshmen a margin the lead which they easily maintained throughout the whole game. Titus, the hurler for ’26, held the opponents scoreless and hitless until the fourth, when they made their first run. He was given mouthwatering support, and in all there was little to say on the merits of the two teams as far as baseball playing is concerned. The game was a farewell first-class exhibition, except that the batters of both teams were a little too strong for the aspiring tossing of the respective classes. It is understood by those who are better informed on the doings of the sophomores that they are coming back with a vengeance in the commencement game. In this game both teams will be reinforced by having 2-2, 2-2, 2-2, and the men who are now on the ‘Varsity squad, who have not been allowed to participate in the Past two contests.

Score: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 RH K

Freshmen Win Tug of War by Default

"28 Awarded Victory When ’25 Refuser to Pull.

The freshmen are free! No longer are they made conspicuous by morose looks or green caps. Now they swagger about the campus with hands thrust deep in their pockets and cigarettes hanging from their lips. They have won their emancipation; for on the twenty-second of May, on the banks of the Creek, with the College en masse and a crowd of visitors present to witness the annual Tug-of-War, the freshmen waited in vain for the sophomores team to appear. When the sophomores failed to come and defend their end of the rope, the freshmen declared victory and so freed from further compliance with freshman rules, returned to the campus triumphant.

There are various opinions as to whether or not the sophomores were sight in refusing to pull in the Tug-of-War. As is known, on the spot appointed for the contest, the class of ’26 as a whole broke one of the freshman rules. The sophomores appealed to a representative of the Student Council, then tried to enforce the rule themselves. It was useless. So, since the principal reason for holding the Tug-of-War is to decide whether or not the freshmen shall be bound by rules, and since a member of the Student Council had allowed the freshmen to break the rules with impunity, the class of ’26 decided that to hold the Tug-of-War would be superfluous.

It is sincerely hoped that this year's incident will not set a bad precedent and bring to the Tug-of-War the same fate that last fall's fiasco brought to the Sophomore-Freshman Flag Scrap.

Fraternity Notes

Faculty Reception at Home of K. G. X.

On Friday evening, May 18th, Kappa Gamma Chi Fraternity held a reception for the entire Faculty of the College to mark the completion of their new fraternity house. This was the first social event of its kind to be held by the fraternity this year, and it was a thorough success. Upwards of thirty guests were present, none of whom were sparing in their praise of the house and its tasteful appointments and to their good wishes for the fraternity. The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Bell, Dr. Davison, Dr. and Mrs. Gusty, Prof. and Mrs. McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. McAlane, Prof. and Mrs. Cook, Major and Mrs. Prince, Dr. and Mrs. Shero, Dr. Muller and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Strong, Mr. Voorhees, Dr. Wilson, Mrs. Blackwell, Mr. Kirtley Lewis, Mrs. Heany Lewis, Chaplain and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Kuyk, Miss Littell, Miss Rollins, Miss Hennel, Mrs. Myers, and Mrs. Tongue.
