existence I like
to think

Poems To Be Read By Many

Anna Vitale

2006

I've been thinking
about
my emerging
self
hood

Magnified times
unintentional greediness to the extent that I require resignation

So men are new
and become things

I've been thinking
about
my emerging
self
hood

Around which the subject follows combustion

For instance some quiet gratification beneath a terminalized patent

So men are new
and become things

about
my emerging
self
hood

What greediness causes
I reconsider and recognize from the get go

No shirtless man will forgive you for being new
